You could do this as long as you amended the Town's Salary Ordinance to reflect the increase.

Mr. Pride..

Randal Johnes here... I am toying with an idea and I need to check to see if it is legal and if the State Board of Accounts would have no objection.

I am considering a holiday bonus for water utility employees only. This would not be a bonus for any elected official. This would be done through a resolution that would have to be voted on every year.

Can we do this?
